

Maya's Community Support Centre

Important Information

Welcome! We are pleased to offer a safe and supportive space for wellbeing activities.

Please note the following important information:

- This beach hut is used for land-based wellbeing and community activities only.
- We do not provide supervised water-based activities.
- There is no lifeguard on duty at this location.
- Anyone entering the sea does so entirely at their own risk.
- We do not provide safety supervision, equipment, or guidance for sea swimming or water use.
- Sea conditions can change rapidly and may be dangerous.

We kindly ask ALL visitors to:

- Take personal responsibility for their own safety
- Supervise any children or vulnerable individuals at all times
- Follow local safety guidance and signage

If you are unsure about sea conditions, please do not enter the water.

Thank you for helping us keep this a safe and supportive space for everyone.

Management – Maya's Community Support Centre

Maya's Community Support Centre

Disclaimer

Maya's Community CIC takes no responsibility for any injury or harm caused outside Maya's beach hut. This beach hut is used for land-based wellbeing and community activities only.

We do NOT provide supervised water-based activities.

There is no lifeguard on duty at this location.

Anyone entering the sea does so entirely at their own risk.

We do not provide safety supervision, equipment, or guidance for sea swimming or water use.

Sea conditions can change rapidly and may be dangerous. If you are unsure do not enter the water

We kindly ask ALL visitors to:

- take personal responsibility for their own safety
- supervise any children or vulnerable individuals at all times